

CALLING ALL 9TH-12TH GRADE EDUCATORS WHO ENCOURAGE STUDENTS' INTERESTS IN TECHNOLOGY!

Receive recognition for changing students' lives.

The NCWIT Aspirations in Computing (AiC) Educator Award identifies exemplary formal and informal educators who play a pivotal role in encouraging 9th-12th grade students who self-identify as women, genderqueer, or non-binary to explore their interest in computing and technology.

CRITERIA AND ELIGIBILITY

Informal and formal educators who meet all of the criteria and eligibility specified at www.aspirations.org/AiCEduAward are welcome to apply.

PRIZES

The National Winner receives a cash prize of $2,500 and a trip to the 2021 NCWIT Summit on Women and IT in Seattle, Washington. Each Regional Affiliate Award Winner and Honorable Mention receives recognition, increased visibility in their school district and community, NCWIT resources, and an engraved award.

ABOUT NCWIT

The National Center for Women & Information Technology (NCWIT) is a non-profit community that convenes, equips, and unites 1,400 change leader organizations to increase the influence and meaningful participation of girls and women from every community in the influential field of computing.
