In addition to teaching in the classroom there are a number of activities that will require JROTC Instructors to work outside of the regular school hours.

- Raider Challenge
- JROTC Cadet Leadership Challenge (JCLC)
- JROTC Leadership and Academic Bowl (JLAB)
- CyberPatriot
- Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM)
- Drill and Rifle Competitions
- Weekend Camps
- Physical Training
The Army JROTC Vision

- JROTC will provide a quality citizenship, character, and leadership development program, while fostering partnerships with communities and educational institutions.
- U.S. Army Junior Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (JROTC) is a congressionally mandated program that focuses on the youth-oriented mission:
  “To Motivate Young People to be Better Citizens”
- It is one of the largest youth programs in the world with more than 310,000 high school students participating annually while enrolled in over 1,700 secondary educational programs and encompasses a myriad of teaching goals focused on leadership, teamwork, character education, personal responsibility, a sense of accomplishment, and service to the nation.
- Two of the most important assets for JROTC are the Cadets/Students and the nearly 4,000 Instructors who lead, guide, and mentor their Cadets.

About the JROTC

JROTC serves as a character and leadership development program for our nation’s high school students. High school students enrolled in JROTC are called “Cadets.”

There are approximately 310,000 Cadets enrolled in JROTC in over 1,700 high schools, led by 4,000 retired Army Instructors.

Eligibility

Noncommissioned Officers must be retired from the Army in the grades of E-6 through E-9.

Officers must be retired from the Army in the grades of W-1 through W-5 or O-3 through O-6.

Roles and Responsibilities - Army Regulation 145-2 and Cadet Command Regulation 145-2 contain specific information pertaining to the roles and responsibilities within the JROTC Program.

- Senior Army Instructor (Department Head)
- Army Instructor

Minimum Instructor Pay (MIP)

MIP is the difference between official retired pay, reported by the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS), and the active duty pay and allowances (excluding hazardous duty and special pays) that a JROTC instructor would receive if ordered to active duty.

Instructor Pay and Allowances are based on DFAS current year Military Pay Tables and include the following:

- Basic Pay
- Basic Allowance for Housing
- Cost of Living Allowance (if applicable)
- Overseas Housing Allowance (if applicable)
- Overseas Cost of Living Allowance (if applicable)
- Clothing Maintenance Allowance (enlisted only)

How To Apply

- Download and complete the Application Certification Packet at www.usarmyjrotc.com
- Meet the all application prerequisites, administrative, medical and mental requirements of Cadet Command Regulation 145-2.
- Applicants cannot apply for or accept Junior ROTC Instructor Positions unless certified through United States Army Cadet Command (USACC), Junior ROTC Directorate's JROTC Application & Qualifications Page.

1-800-347-6641
www.usarmyjrotc.com